Meet your Keynote Speaker: Major Garrett

This year's keynote is Major Garrett CBS News' Chief Washington Correspondent & Columnist at Large for the National Journal. For thirty years Major Garrett has reported from the front lines of the nation's pressing issues, doggedly chasing and breaking news stories. He began his illustrious journalism career as a police and general assignment reporter and has since covered Congress for two major magazines and served as White House correspondent for three television networks.

When registering for the Briefing, please be sure to review the health and safety protocols for the conference on the event website.
