LaShuan Bethea, Executive Director, National Center for Assisted Living

“I am incredibly proud of all the hard work and dedication assisted living communities have put into the National Quality Award Program. This year, we recognized more assisted living communities with a National Quality Award since the pandemic. It's truly heartwarming to see the impact we've made on the lives of countless residents and staff. But you know what? I believe we can do even better. I want to challenge each and every assisted living community to step up and declare their intent to apply for a 2024 National Quality Award.

“Let's not just meet our past successes; let's exceed them. Together, we can continue to raise the bar for quality care, touching more lives and making a difference that truly matters. Your dedication is the heartbeat of our industry, and I have no doubt that you have what it takes to achieve even greater heights in 2024. Let's make it a year to remember!”
